IN THE LABOUR COURT GOA, DAMAN AND DIU, PANAJI GOA

(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No.: LCC/24/82

1. Mr. John A. Pereira — Applicant
V/s.

1. M/s. Shantilal Khushaldas & Bros. — Opponent
Private Limited

Applicant represented by Adv. Antonio Cardozo and Adv. A. P. Lawande.

Opponent represented by Shri Ramesh Desai, Labour Advisor.

Panaji. Dated: 25-1-1984

AWARD

This is an application filed under Section 33C(2) of the I. D. A., 1947, in short the Act, by the above applicant against the above opponent, claiming from the latter Rs. 9,409-50 as his salary dues from January, 1981 to January, 1982.

2. It is his case that he was employed on 7-9-1970 with the Opponents as a Typist at the Head Office, Margao; his monthly salary was Rs. 225-00 initially and his present salary is Rs. 861-90. The Management failed to pay him his salary from January 1981 to January, 1982, amounting to Rs. 9,409-50. He approached the Management several times but they have failed to effect the payment till this date.

3. In its written statement the employer/opponent has raised certain preliminary objections, mainly regarding the impleading of Shri Pravinkumar Gosalia and Shri Vinod S. Gosalia as opponents in this case in their individual capacity.

4. On merits, it is contended that, since 1973-74 the business activities of the opponent, namely the export of iron ore was not going on in a satisfactory manner and in the last 4 years the firm has been facing acute financial crisis. The workmen including the applicant were paid of their wages, although the payments were delayed, due to financial difficulties. In a meeting held between the employer and the workmen it was agreed that the workmen employed in the Mines would give a production at a certain rate per month, based on which the opponents agreed to make payment, linked with production, to the workmen employed in the Mines. There would be no effective work to the employees employed in the Head Office unless there was production by the employees in the Mines. On account of failure of the workmen to give any production from the period December 1980, the employees in the Head Office were considered on lay-off without wages. In any event, the applicant has not performed any duties on the aforementioned period and as such is not entitled to claim any amount from the Opponent.

5. There was a rejoinder filed by the applicant rebutting the allegations made by the opponent in its written statement.

6. After issues were framed, and before any evidence was led by the parties terms of amicable settlement were filed by the parties settling the matter in dispute in this application and praying for a Consent Award. The settlement terms read as follows:

"a) The Applicant, Shri John A. Pereira, agreed to receive an amount of Rs. 19,985-04 towards full and final settlement of all his claim for the services rendered with the Opponent and on account of cessation of relations between the Applicant and the Opponent.

b) The Opponent agrees to pay the amount of Rs. 19,985-04 as above, in instalments as mentioned below:

1st Instalment	—	31-1-1984	—	Rs. 6,000-00
2nd	"	—	31-3-1984	—	Rs. 2,330-84
3rd	"	—	31-5-1984	—	Rs. 2,330-84
4th	"	—	31-7-1984	—	Rs. 2,330-84
5th	"	—	30-9-1984	—	Rs. 2,330-84
6th	"	—	30-11-1984	—	Rs. 2,330-84
7th	"	—	31-1-1985	—	Rs. 2,330-84

Rs. 19,985-04"

7. I have considered the terms of settlement referred to above and arrived at the conclusion that they are fair and just to both the parties and, hence, I accept them and pass the following Order:

ORDER

Consent Award in terms of the above settlement is hereby made and this application is disposed off. No order as to costs.

Dr. Renato de Noronha
Presiding Officer
Labour Court

IN THE LABOUR COURT GOA, DAMAN AND DIU, PANAJI GOA

(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No.: LCC/7/81

1. Shri Ankush Daji Wadkar — Applicant
V/s.

1. Shri Anil P. Verlekar (Adv.) — Opponent

Panaji. Dated: 16-1-1984

AWARD

This is an application under Section 33C(2) of the I. D. A., 1947, in short the Act, filed by the above applicant against the above opponent, claiming from the latter the total amount of Rs. 4,500/- of his wages from 1-12-1979 to 15-4-1981, as per the details given in the annexure to the application.

2. It is applicant's case that he was working for the opponent during the above period with a monthly salary of Rs. 250/- and that he has not been paid of his salary during the entire period.

3. The opponent, in his written statement, raised some preliminary objections going to the root of the jurisdiction of this court and, on merits, contended that he has rendered his professional services as Advocate to the applicant, which fees amounting to Rs. 600/- have not yet been paid by the latter to the opponent. The opponent was approached by the applicant, through his friends, representing that he was without a job and, therefore, he will not be able to pay to the opponent readily. Considering the applicant's circumstances, the opponent agreed to render him his professional services in two cases, but on delayed payment. And, in fact, such services were rendered to the applicant, who has not bothered to pay him his fees, although contacted several times orally and in writing. The applicant, somewhere in December 1979, took away Eviction Appeal No. 3 of 1980 from the opponent, stating that he would show it to his brother, who is at Vengurla, and would arrange to make-part payments of the legal dues owed to the Opponent. After that, the applicant did not approach the Opponent. Since his legal dues were not paid, there was exchange of correspondence between the two. Taking advantage of the absence of the opponent from the house, the applicant caught hold of the diary of the opponent by inducing his mother to part with the same. After that, he started making frivolous demands of the so called "Salary" when, infact, the applicant was not concerned in any way with the opponent, nor was he qualified to work under the opponent as his clerk or in any other capacity. All that happened was that, in course of time, the applicant became friendly with the Opponent and took advantage of this situation.

4. The applicant filed his rejoinder and, thereafter, the following issues were framed by the Court:

"1. Whether the Applicant proves that he is entitled to the amounts claimed?

2. Whether the Opponent proves that this Court has no jurisdiction to entertain this claim, assuming that the Applicant was working as Advocate's clerk?

3. Whether the Opponent proves that he rendered his professional services, as advocate, to the applicant in two cases and was not paid of his fees amounting to Rs. 600/- and also filed an application in Land Survey Department in Margao on 28-11-80, for which he was also not paid?

4. Whether the Opponent proves, that, taking advantage of his absence, the applicant caught hold of his diary and induced his mother to part with it?

5. Whether the Applicant proves that, while working for the Opponent Advocate, has rendered him services of various kinds such as mentioned in his rejoinder?

What Order?

Issue No. 2 to be treated as preliminary."

5. Both the parties filed their list of evidence and the matter was fixed for arguments on the preliminary issue. Arguments were heard and order passed by the Court on 7-10-1981 and the preliminary issue was answered in the negative.

6. After the case was posted for hearing on merits, the Opponent filed an application for amendment, which was granted and, accordingly, the following additional issues were framed by the Court below the original issues:

"6. Whether the Opponent proves that the claim of the applicant does not come within the purview of Section 33(C)(2) of the Act as several questions of law and facts have to be considered by the Tribunal?

7. Whether the Opponent proves that his establishment is not an industry for the purpose of the Act?"

No additional written statement was filed by the applicant regarding the additional issues framed, nor was any additional list of evidence filed by the parties. Then, the case was posted for hearing on merits. On the date so fixed and even before that, during 3 or 4 occasions, the applicant, although duly served, remained absent. Notice was published in the issue of the 'Navhind Times' informing the applicant of the date fixed for hearing, as the notice issued to him was returned unserved. Nevertheless, the applicant remained absent on the date fixed for hearing.

7. As it was for the applicant to lead evidence to prove his case and since he remained absent without any justification, I pass the following Order:

ORDER

Applicant's application is hereby dismissed for default. Costs to be borne by the applicant.

approach the Opponent. Since his legal dues were not paid, there was exchange of correspondence between the two. Taking advantage of the absence of the opponent from the house, the applicant caught hold of the diary of the opponent by inducing his mother to part with the same. After that, he started making frivolous demands of the so called "Salary" when, infact, the applicant was not concerned in any way with the opponent, nor was he qualified to work under the opponent as his clerk or in any other capacity. All that happened was that, in course of time, the applicant became friendly with the Opponent and took advantage of this situation.

4. The applicant filed his rejoinder and, thereafter, the following issues were framed by the Court:

"1. Whether the Applicant proves that he is entitled to the amounts claimed?

2. Whether the Opponent proves that this Court has no jurisdiction to entertain this claim, assuming that the Applicant was working as Advocate's clerk?

3. Whether the Opponent proves that he rendered his professional services, as advocate, to the applicant in two cases and was not paid of his fees amounting to Rs. 600/- and also filed an application in Land Survey Department in Margao on 28-11-80, for which he was also not paid?

4. Whether the Opponent proves, that, taking advantage of his absence, the applicant caught hold of his diary and induced his mother to part with it?

5. Whether the Applicant proves that, while working for the Opponent Advocate, has rendered him services of various kinds such as mentioned in his rejoinder?

What Order?

Issue No. 2 to be treated as preliminary."

5. Both the parties filed their list of evidence and the matter was fixed for arguments on the preliminary issue. Arguments were heard and order passed by the Court on 7-10-1981 and the preliminary issue was answered in the negative.

6. After the case was posted for hearing on merits, the Opponent filed an application for amendment, which was granted and, accordingly, the following additional issues were framed by the Court below the original issues:

"6. Whether the Opponent proves that the claim of the applicant does not come within the purview of Section 33(C)(2) of the Act as several questions of law and facts have to be considered by the Tribunal?

7. Whether the Opponent proves that his establishment is not an industry for the purpose of the Act?"

No additional written statement was filed by the applicant regarding the additional issues framed, nor was any additional list of evidence filed by the parties. Then, the case was posted for hearing on merits. On the date so fixed and even before that, during 3 or 4 occasions, the applicant, although duly served, remained absent. Notice was published in the issue of the 'Navhind Times' informing the applicant of the date fixed for hearing, as the notice issued to him was returned unserved. Nevertheless, the applicant remained absent on the date fixed for hearing.

7. As it was for the applicant to lead evidence to prove his case and since he remained absent without any justification, I pass the following Order:

ORDER

Applicant's application is hereby dismissed for default. Costs to be borne by the applicant.
